THE SHALIMAR
HOTEL

Things only get better...

January - March 2012

Dear Guests,

This year, The Shalimar is soon to notch up a '50' on the scoreboard of SoBo history. At 49 we have evolved as a cornucopia of avant garde hospitality. A triad of crisp training, conscientious guest service and caring responsibility, always welcome you to The Shalimar. As we step into our golden anniversary year, we raise a toast to you! A Cocktail of happiness, upbeat delight, goodwill, peace, all shaken together and topped with a garnish of thankfulness! "Bottoms Up!" and wishing you a fine 2012!

The hectic revelry of 2011 has fused its pulse with the new year at hand. Amidst it all, for your frayed mid-week nerves, here is our antidote ~ Begin at the Bakerie with a perky brew, chow down at The Sandwich Bar, then to The Serene Room for that soporific wanderlust under the artisanal expertise of our therapists. At nightfall, a gentrified dive for Smooth, or a brisk takeaway order from your speed-dial list to bring Shalimar goodies to your doorstep whilst you bask in the comfort of your home. Try them. You should be good to go for the days ahead. As always, we look forward to your valued patronage.

Art Exhibition!

ART SHALIMAR our 'art walk' at Lobby Level has been gaining impressionable followers ever since it began exhibiting a few years ago. In spite of moving on to bigger inspirations, many artists who have exhibited with us in the past, still enthusiastically return to Art Shalimar. This, is most surely because of the support you have been extending them!

October last marked the completion of yet another successful sale at our banquet venue, The North, curated by 'Three Blynd Mice'.

Look out for one coming up and maybe you could find yourself an 'arty' bargain that would multiply in value several times over in the years to come!

Worli Is Smoking Hot!

The news here is just out of the oven and comes to you fresh and piping hot! The Bakerie - Worli, has started a 20% discount promotion among the many schools, colleges and hostels around the area. While the cosy sit down is inviting enough for a short, meaningful tete a tete, the 'take away' is convenience and quality rolled into one, and is great for any celebration.

THE BAKERIE - WORLI, WELCOMES YOU, OFFERING: PASTRIES, PIES, COOKIES, HIGH TEA CAKES, TARTS, PUFFS, QUICHES, SALADS, COFFEES, SANDWICHES, CROISSANTS, BREADS & BUNS. FOR CELEBRATIONS, ADVANCE ORDERS CAN BE PLACED FOR GATEAUX, FANCY & SHAPE CAKES, WHICH ARE ALSO AVAILABLE EGGLESS.

DAIQUIRI DECEMBERS

RESTOBAR

Ernest Hemingway the famous author, was often remembered for spending many hours, downing his favourite tippie, a lime daiquiri, at his same favourite corner table every evening, in his favourite bar, 'Floridita', on Obispo Street in Old Havana. Those were the years he spent in Cuba. While it is surely true that Hemmingway was a big fan of his daiquiri, you may well be warned that the subtle influence due to time spent with daiquiris, may induce the writer in you to churn out a masterpiece!

The Daiquiri event at SMOOTH Restobar in December was much appreciated. While you could ask for Hemmingway's classic, the menu also offered the favourite daiquiri cocktails of other famous personalities (seems like many of them had a favourite daiquiri). Some drink! This daiquiri!
